

Students actively participated in the Mock Parliament Session, gaining practical exposure to the democratic process. They assumed the roles of Members of Parliament and engaged in meaningful debates on contemporary issues. The session helped students improve their communication skills, leadership qualities, and understanding of parliamentary procedures.