

Faculty Participation in International Webinar on Research Excellence

The Department of Humanities and Sciences celebrated the Pre-Sankranti festival with great enthusiasm and festive spirit. All the faculty members actively participated in the traditional celebration, which included a fun and engaging wooden spinners competition. The event created a joyful and vibrant atmosphere within the department, promoting cultural values and team bonding among the staff. Dr. Venkata Ramana emerged as the winner of the wooden spinners competition, adding excitement to the celebration. The occasion strengthened camaraderie among faculty members and reflected the department's commitment to preserving cultural traditions alongside academic excellence.

