

Transforming Minds, Inspiring Change: PVKKIT Essay Writing Success

The Department of Humanities and Sciences, in collaboration with the Sri Satya Sai Seva Organization and the Student Activity Cell, proudly organized a large-scale Essay Writing Competition at Vivekananda Bhavan, Balaji Pharmacy College, marking a historic milestone for PVKKIT with the active participation of over 230 students. The competition was conducted under the inspiring theme, "Transform the World by Transforming Yourself," encouraging students to reflect on how personal growth and self-awareness can lead to positive global change.

The event aimed to foster critical thinking, creativity, and social consciousness among students. Participants from various departments showcased their writing talents by presenting insightful essays that connected individual responsibility with societal transformation. The competition served as a platform for students to articulate their perspectives on moral values, service, and leadership in a rapidly changing world.

Principal Dr. Bandi Ramesh Babu and Administrative Officer Dr. K. Manohar Reddy graced the occasion and appreciated the remarkable efforts of the organizing team. They extended special recognition to the student coordinators—Mr. Hari, Mr. Raghu, Mr. Natesh, Ms. Vaishnavi, Ms. Hari Keerthi, Mr. Mansoor, Mr. Gouse, and their dedicated team—for their outstanding planning, enthusiasm, and teamwork that ensured the smooth and successful conduct of the competition.

The event concluded with words of encouragement from the dignitaries, who emphasized the importance of self-improvement as a pathway to transforming communities and society at large. This successful initiative reflects PVKKIT's unwavering commitment to nurturing intellectual growth, character development, and civic responsibility among its students, preparing them to become agents of positive change in the world.

